

Ohlone is the only Northern California Community College Approved by DHS and NSA as

National Center of Academic Excellence in Cyber Security Education

Start your education in cyber security now at Ohlone, a promising step toward the future.

In today's era of rapidly escalating threats and sophisticated cyber warfare, organizations need to be vigilant in combating attackers and protecting information assets.

IT security specialists leverage an in-depth understanding of cyber security threats, technologies, and countermeasures to design and implement secure computer systems.

What careers are out there?

$120K
Information Security Analysts

28% job growth by 2026:
Plan and carry out security measures to protect an organization's computer networks and systems.

- 6.4 billion - The number of fake emails sent worldwide — every day
- Ransomware attacks are growing more than 350% annually
- 1.76 billion records were leaked in January 2019 alone

$100K
Network & System Administrator

12% job growth by 2026:
Responsible for day-to-day operation of networks and computer system management

- Ransomware is expected to cost businesses and organizations $11.5 billion in 2019
- Phishing emails are responsible for about 91% of cyber attacks

Ohlone College Cyber Security Related Courses & Certificates

NSA National COE Approved Network Administrator Certificate

- CNET 146 - Introduction to Linux
- CNET 155A - Introduction to Networks
- CNET 162 \(Windows Server Installation\)
- CNET 170 \(Network Security\)

Cybersecurity Certificate

- CNET 170 \(Network Security\)
- CNET 173 \(Ethical Hacking\)
- CNET 174 \(Computer Forensics\)
- CNET 175 \(Cloud Security\)

Ohlone College is the only northern California community college approved by NSA as National Center of Academic Excellence (CAE) in cybersecurity education

