

System Administrator

- * System Administrator provides technical support for IT back-end servers infrastructure System Administrator provide support for back-end servers
- * Sysadmins are usually charged with installing, supporting, and maintaining servers or other computer systems, and planning for and responding to service outages and other problems.
- * Other duties may include scripting or light programming, project management for systems-related projects.
- * System Admin need a deep understanding of computer hardware and software.

Ohlone Courses & Programs:	Associate of Science Degree & Certification: Information Technology	Associate of Science & Certification: Service Support	Associate of Science & Certification: System Administration
	Certification of Accomplishment: Linux <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Linux • Virtualization 	Certification of Accomplishment: Microsoft Certified IT Professional	Certification of Accomplishment: Program Management
CNET 105 (IT Essentials)	CNET 108 (Program Mgt)	CNET 120 (VMWare)
CNET 122A (Storage Admin)	CNET 140 (Linux Admin 1)	CNET 147 (Shell Scripting)	